Observations from the Chief Returning Officer

I was able to stick to the Election timeline as approved at the previous meeting of the TGSA Board of Representatives. Not expecting the need for an actual election, as in previous years all candidates were acclaimed, I was pleased to be able to test the new online voting system for the TGSA. I do think it was a success. In the interest of future elections, I would like to record some of my reflections on this experience.

The Non-Conjoint MA Students from the University of St Michael's College are not included in the ROSI/Acorn lists of graduate students from the University of Toronto. Everyone was invited to email me if they had problems voting. I distributed 2 manual ballots but only one was returned. I therefore increased the eligible voters by 1 to accommodate this manual ballot. I do not know how many Non-Conjoint MA students there are. This anomaly will resolve itself in later years as TST begins to offer Conjoint programs.

The Constitution and Policies and Procedures say that the Chief Returning Officer will inform candidates of the Rules for Campaigning. Not having any precedent, I consulted members of the TGSA Constitution Committee and based the rules largely on those used by the University of Toronto Graduate Students' Union. These may be adapted in later years, but I believe they serve as a good model.

One of the unique challenges was that Easter fell in the middle of the Election timeline. It was because of this, and candidate's commitment to family and church communities over Easter, that only one candidate attended the Candidate's meeting on Monday, 28 March 2016 which I scheduled to explain the Code of Campaign Rules.

I received no complaints in terms of Section D of the Code of Campaign Rules within the period allowed to lodge complaints. I therefore present the results and declare that the election was conducted in terms of the Constitution, Policies and Procedures, and the Code of Campaign Rules.

Whilst there were no complaints lodged, I did notice that the Code of Campaign Rules and the Rules for the Nomination and Election of Candidates could be more specific in dealing with whether, and how, autonomous College Unions might endorse or publicly support candidates; and how the rules cover what candidates may do, but are silent about what others might do on their behalf, Rule 2 of Section A of the Code of Campaign Rules notwithstanding.

Additionally, I would suggest that there be a day in between the campaign period ending and the voting starting so that if there were any complaints they could be received and considered before the election is started.

I would also ask that College Representatives inform their Colleges that elections are happening. We had an experience where Candidates tried to have their posters placed on the noticeboard but this was delayed and in some cases, I understand, did not occur, because of the process followed. Though I received no complaints about this, I think it could be avoided if College Representatives were to explain who to speak to and make them alert to the tight time-frames during which posters were allowed to be publicized.

I would like to thank the TGSA Board of Representatives, and more broadly, all Graduate Students at TST for entrusting this election to my care and I wish the newly elected candidates all the best.

Yours sincerely,

Matthew Charlesworth, S.J.
Chief Returning Officer

7 March 2016

Dear Graduate Students,

Your Graduate Students' Association is pleased to remind all students that nominations for the following elected positions on the TGSA Board for the period 2016/2017 are still possible:

- President
- Treasurer
- Vice President Academic
- Vice President Conferences
- Vice President External
- Program Representative: Bible
- Program Representative: History
- Program Representative: Pastoral
- Program Representative: Master of Arts
- Program Representative: Doctor of Ministry

Please note: Candidates must be nominated by two of their peers; be willing to serve; and in the College, program, or concentration to be represented (if applicable). If it is unclear, I shall ask potential candidates to confirm their willingness to serve as well as their College, program, and concentration(s).

Full details of the nomination process were contained in my original email on 29 February - but if it's too confusing, please just email me at matthew.charlesworth@mail.utoronto.ca and I can advise.

Perhaps some of you are interested in different positions and wondering which one to go for? and are worried that if you put your name forward for one, you might not be able to change it later... I draw your attention to:

"E.2.4 Once the nomination period ends, the Returning Officer will inform all the candidates of who is running and which positions are still vacant, giving multiply eligible candidates a brief opportunity to change the position they are seeking before the election without requiring additional nominations."

So please don't be shy in putting your name forward, or that of someone you think would do a good job... there is a brief opportunity at the end of the nomination period for us to ensure that everyone is able to contribute... and it really is great, fun way to participate and get involved at TST!

Please email me at matthew.charlesworth@mail.utoronto.ca if you are interested in representing TST students next year. (But please do so before 4pm on Friday, March 18th 2016.)

And don't forget the great TGSA Student Conference this Friday (Download Poster and Conference Schedule) - if you are thinking you need to find people to nominate you come on Friday and we can easily sort that out!)

This year's Board thanks students in advance for considering this opportunity to volunteer their time and skills on behalf of their fellow students.

Thursday, 24 March 2016

Dear TST students,

The nominations period that began on Monday, 29 February 2016 ended successfully at 4pm on Friday, 18 March 2016. A total of nine nominations were received. Six of the nominations were uncontested and so will be acclaimed at the Annual General Meeting on Thursday, 7 April 2016, from 12 - 2pm in the Toronto School of Theology building.

Three nominations were received, however, for the position of Vice-President Academic (in alphabetical order by surname):

1. Warren Campbell (ThM student at Wycliffe College)
2. Marie Green (PhD student at the University of St Michael's College)
3. Fiona Li (ThM student at the University of St Michael's College).

There is thus a need for an election. I have attached to this email a copy of the three candidate's statements. They will be campaigning in TST during the Campaign Period from Tuesday, March 29, 2016 until Thursday, March 31, 2016.

The names of the candidates who will be officially ratified and acclaimed at the Annual General Meeting on Thursday, 7 April 2016 are:

- President - Allison Murray, PhD student at Emmanuel College.
- Treasurer - Gordon Brown, PhD student at Knox College.
- Vice President Conferences - Melanie Kampen, PhD student at Emmanuel College.
- Emmanuel College Representative - Lindsay Ann Cox, PhD student at Emmanuel College.
- Knox College Representative - Margaret J Perry, PhD student at Knox College.
- Program Representative: Bible - Trenton Voth, PhD student at Emmanuel College.

Thank you to all the candidates. Of course, they only officially take over once the AGM has ratified their election.

There were no nominations received for the other positions and the new Board will decide how to co-opt or fill those positions as per the Policies and Procedures of the TGSA.

The elections will run from 12:00am on Friday, April 1, 2016 until 11:59pm on Tuesday, April 5, 2016. To vote, please log in during the voting period to <http://voting.utoronto.ca> using your UTOR ID and password. If you have any problems voting, please contact me at matthew.charlesworth@mail.utoronto.ca. (The voting will only work during the voting period beginning Friday, April 1, 2016 and will not work after midnight of Tuesday, April 5, 2016.)

Thank you for reading this far and I hope you will participate in the TGSA Elections on Friday, April 1, 2016. (And if you see an announcement reminding you to vote - remember, it's not an April Fool's message!)

I wish you all a Happy and Holy Easter.

Document E

1 April 2016

Dear Graduate Students,

Voting is now open for the TGSA Elections. You can log in to <http://voting.utoronto.ca/> using your UTOR ID and password, and vote for one of the three candidates (listed alphabetically by surname):

1. Warren Campbell - Thank you for considering me for the position of Vice President Academic. My vision for the role is simply to create an effective and open channel of communication between the TST Academic Council and the TGSA board. The opportunity to serve as a voice between these two governing bodies is something I would approach with much respect and candor. Furthermore, it has been my experience that a lack of political or social engagement is often a result of not knowing where to begin. Thus, my goal is to help create greater continuity between the student body and the TGSA board by opening easy and accessible avenues for students to voice their thoughts, opinions, ideas, etc. Since it has been my experience that the TST is one of the most unique and fruitful academic locations of study, I would welcome the opportunity to make a positive contribution to such an environment as the VP Academic.
2. Marie Green - I'm Marie Green and I'm excited to be your Vice-President Academic for TGSA. I want to be a part of a lively community of scholars – students and professors – who break bread together, inspire, support and pray for one another. Centered in Christ (1 Cor. 3:10-15), I envision a theological community that produces great research, informs public discourse and lays the foundation for great academic achievement. The fact that this position is being contested is testament to the significance of the role and I will do my best to reinforce that throughout my tenure. Rest assured, I am passionate about informing decisions that affect the student body. My soft skills and experience as a student in the conjoint PhD program with St. Mikes (MTS, Wycliffe 2011), will help me contribute to the goals of TGSA in a positive way. I am committed to hearing from you and working with my fellow reps, administration and other stakeholders. I look forward to receiving your vote and to representing you.
3. Fiona Li - I'm Fiona Li and I'm running to be your Vice-President Academic! My motto is “Be someone who makes others feel important,” and I am passionate about hearing your experiences, problems, and suggestions. For example, I know many doctoral students have concerns with aspects of the cohort classes. If elected, I will gather your feedback and make this the first issue I raise at TST's Academic Council. This passion has led me into student politics: I'm on the University of St. Michael's College (USMC) Faculty of Theology's Student Life Committee (last year as Co-Chair, and this year as a member), the liturgical committee, the Faculty of Theology's Council, and USMC Senate. I also recently served on the organizing committee for the Celebrating Women in Theology Conference and have attended meetings of the TST Graduate Studies Council and the TGSA Board. With my experience, I am ready to serve the whole TST community! So starting Friday, April 1, please give me your vote!

Thank you for participating in the election. If you encounter any problems logging in or casting your vote, please email me and tell me the UTOR ID you are trying to use and your name and degree you are registered with, and your email address @mail.utoronto.ca, and I shall do all I can to help you cast your vote.

Voting is possible until 11:59 PM on Tuesday, 5 April 2016.

The results will be announced at the Annual General Meeting on Thursday, 7 April 2016 at the TST Building, to which you are all invited. Please RSVP to tgsa@utoronto.ca

18 March 2016

Dear Graduate students,

The nominations period that began on Monday, 29 February 2016 ended successfully at 4pm on Friday, 18 March 2016. A total of nine nominations were received. Six of the nominations were uncontested and so will be acclaimed at the Annual General Meeting on Thursday, 7 April 2016, from 12 – 2pm in the Toronto School of Theology building.

Three nominations were received, however, for the position of Vice President Academic (in alphabetical order by surname):

- Warren Campbell (ThM student at Wycliffe College)
- Marie Green (PhD student at the University of St Michael's College)
- Fiona Li (ThM student at the University of St Michael's College).

There is thus a need for an election. I have attached at the end of this post a copy of the three candidate's statements. They will be campaigning in TST during the Campaign Period from Tuesday, March 29, 2016 until Thursday, March 31, 2016.

The names of the candidates who will be officially ratified and acclaimed at the Annual General Meeting on Thursday, 7 April 2016 are:

- President – Allison Murray, PhD student at Emmanuel College.
- Treasurer – Gordon Brown, PhD student at Knox College.
- Vice President Conferences – Melanie Kampen, PhD student at Emmanuel College.
- Emmanuel College Representative – Lindsay Ann Cox, PhD student at Emmanuel College.
- Knox College Representative – Margaret J Perry, PhD student at Knox College.
- Program Representative: Bible – Trenton Voth, PhD student at Emmanuel College.

Thank you to all the candidates. Of course, they only officially take over once the AGM has ratified their election. There were no nominations received for the other positions and the new Board will decide how to co-opt or fill those positions as per the Policies and Procedures of the TGSA.

The elections will run from 12:00am on Friday, April 1, 2016 until 11:59pm on Tuesday, April 5, 2016. To vote, please log in during the voting period to <http://voting.utoronto.ca> using your UTOR ID and password. If you have any problems voting, please contact me at matthew.charlesworth@mail.utoronto.ca. (The voting will only work during the voting period beginning Friday, April 1, 2016 and will not work after midnight of Tuesday, April 5, 2016.)

Thank you for reading this far and I hope you will participate in the TGSA Elections on Friday, April 1, 2016. (And if you see an announcement reminding you to vote – remember, it's not an April Fool's message!)

Candidate's Campaign Statements

Warren Campbell

Thank you for considering me for the position of Vice President Academic. My vision for the role is simply to create an effective and open channel of communication between the TST Academic Council and the TGSA board. The opportunity to serve as a voice between these two governing bodies is something I would approach with much respect and candor. Furthermore, it has been my experience that a lack of political or social engagement is often a result of not knowing where to begin. Thus, my goal is to help create greater continuity between the student body and the TGSA board by opening easy and accessible avenues for students to voice their thoughts, opinions, ideas, etc. Since it has been my experience that the TST is one of the most unique and fruitful academic locations of study, I would welcome the opportunity to make a positive contribution to such an environment as the VP Academic.

Marie Green

I'm Marie Green and I'm excited to be your Vice-President Academic for TGSA. I want to be a part of a lively community of scholars – students and professors – who break bread together, inspire, support and pray for one another. Centered in Christ (1 Cor. 3:10-15), I envision a theological community that produces great research, informs public discourse and lays the foundation for great academic achievement. The fact that this position is being contested is testament to the significance of the role and I will do my best to reinforce that throughout my tenure. Rest assured, I am passionate about informing decisions that affect the student body. My soft skills and experience as a student in the conjoint PhD program with St. Mikes (MTS, Wycliffe 2011), will help me contribute to the goals of TGSA in a positive way. I am committed to hearing from you and working with my fellow reps, administration and other stakeholders. I look forward to receiving your vote and to representing you.

Fiona Li

I'm Fiona Li and I'm running to be your Vice-President Academic! My motto is "Be someone who makes others feel important," and I am passionate about hearing your experiences, problems, and suggestions. For example, I know many doctoral students have concerns with aspects of the cohort classes. If elected, I will gather your feedback and make this the first issue I raise at TST's Academic Council. This passion has led me into student politics: I'm on the University of St. Michael's College (USMC) Faculty of Theology's Student Life Committee (last year as Co-Chair, and this year as a member), the liturgical committee, the Faculty of Theology's Council, and USMC Senate. I also recently served on the organizing committee for the Celebrating Women in Theology Conference and have attended meetings of the TST Graduate Studies Council and the TGSA Board. With my experience, I am ready to serve the whole TST community! So starting Friday, April 1, please give me your vote!

18 March 2016

Dear All,

My name is Matthew Charlesworth and I am the Chief Returning Officer for the TST Graduate Students' Association's Elections for 2016/2017.

I am writing this letter to confirm your nominations and to communicate to you in terms of Section E.2.4. of the Policies and Procedures for Elections and Referenda of the TST Graduate Students' Association which you can find on our website.

Please read the attached letter. For those of you who are contesting a position, you have the opportunity to opt for another position that is currently vacant and that you are eligible for. This is to ensure that when we go to a campaigning and election phase, we have offered everyone the chance to get involved with the TGSA Board of Representatives who wishes to get involved.

I will write again on Monday evening, once I've heard if there are any of you who desire to switch from a contested to a vacant position, in terms of E.2.4. of the Policies, etc. In the meantime, I ask that you keep this email and its attachment confidential until I confirm the final nominations and announce them publicly. That announcement will also include the rules for Campaigning during the permitted Campaign period and how the elections will be run.

Many thanks for putting your name forward. Please don't hesitate to email me if you have any questions.

Kind regards

21 March 2016

Dear Fiona, Marie and Warren,

Good day. I received no emails from you before 4pm indicating that you had considered changing your nomination from a contested Vice-President Academic to an uncontested vacant position for the TGSA Board of Representatives, so I assume you all want to contest the position of Vice-President Academic.

If you attempted to send me a message please let me know, but otherwise, since then there will be an election between the 3 of you for the contested position of Vice-President Academic, could you please supply a Candidate Statement that must be no longer than 1,000 characters including punctuations and white-space. The statement should explain why you want the job and why someone should vote for you, your vision for TGSA etc.

That's 1,000 CHARACTERS, (the maximum space allowed on our ballot forms) e.g.

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Fusce molestie, augue at molestie tempor, ex quam porttitor nisl, id dictum velit odio et mauris. Maecenas nec efficitur nunc. Aenean eu ultrices tortor, vitae luctus urna. Aliquam erat volutpat. Nulla facilisi. Sed arcu velit, porttitor vel aliquam at, vestibulum vel lorem. Proin at sem nec erat ultricies fermentum et eu purus. Mauris vitae ipsum velit. Maecenas viverra nunc ut velit accumsan, nec rutrum risus vehicula. Cras auctor sapien id vehicula efficitur. Mauris ullamcorper, sapien ut hendrerit laoreet, felis metus fringilla eros, finibus sollicitudin lacus orci at nisl. Curabitur urna mauris, molestie in ultricies sed, dignissim quis tellus. Integer et pulvinar quam. Nam sapien odio, gravida id elit ut, tincidunt convallis massa. Aliquam facilisis pellentesque elementum. Vestibulum eu leo aliquet, interdum quam at, condimentum tellus. Sed luctus rhoncus enim, aliquet hendrerit lorem tincidunt vitae. Vestibulum ante metus.

I will place your Candidate Statement alongside your name on the ballot.

Once I have received your statements I will communicate the campaign rules. If you have any questions in the meantime, please contact me.

24 March 2016

Dear Candidates,

Thank you for giving me your campaign statements. I am now preparing the ballots. The elections will run from 12:00am on Friday, April 1, 16 12:00 AM until 11:59pm on Tuesday, April 5, 2016. To vote, Graduate students at TST must log in during the voting period to <http://voting.utoronto.ca> using their UTOR ID and password.

The campaigning period begins Tuesday, March 29, 2016 and continues until Thursday, March 31, 2016. I am calling a meeting of us all on Monday, March 28th, 2pm-3pm at the TST Building where we can talk about the Campaign and I can clarify any questions you might have about the Campaign Rules (attached).

This is the first time - I am told - that there has been an actual election for the TGSA (previously ADSA) in 5 years... so I hope we can all do a good job and play fair. If you cannot attend the meeting on Monday, please send a proxy. If you have any questions, you can also email me - but I'd like us to meet on Monday before the Campaigning begins, so I can introduce you to the staff at TST who can help you with your photocopying, go through the procedure for claiming your $25 worth of expenses, and for you all to meet each other.

Good luck and thank you for considering to run for the TGSA this election.

CODE OF CAMPAIGN RULES

SECTION A: GENERAL CAMPAIGN RULES

1. Candidates are responsible for obtaining and understanding the information provided at the mandatory all-candidates meeting on Monday, March 28th, 12pm-1pm at the TST Building. In the event that a candidate is unable to attend the all-candidates meeting in person, they may elect to send a proxy. In the event that they send a proxy they assume the responsibility for any miscommunication on behalf of the proxy.
2. Candidates are responsible for the behavior of their supporters in any campaign activity.
3. Candidates shall campaign in accordance with the rules of "fairplay." Breaking the rules of fair play includes, but is not limited to: breaching generally accepted community standards, libel, slander, general sabotage of the campaigns of other candidates, attempting to undermine the electoral process, and misrepresentation of facts.
4. No campaigning shall take place before the campaign period officially begins (12:00am on Tuesday, March 29, 2016) and no campaigning shall take place after the campaign period ends (11:59pm on Thursday, March 31, 2016).
5. All campaign materials must be removed by 11:59 pm on Tuesday, April 5, 2016, which is the final day of voting.
6. The CRO must be notified of all campaign tactics, material and/or advertisements in advance.
7. Campaign or election related materials or advertisements that seek to oppose the election of one or more candidates (e.g. naming them, showing their likeness, identifying them by their political affiliations etc.) will not be approved.
8. Candidates may not campaign in any classroom without the express permission of the instructor in charge of the class. Failure for an instructor to grant permission is not grounds to appeal. Such permission must be obtained before the beginning of the class. Campaigning may not interrupt or interfere with classroom activity.

9. Candidates may not use in their campaign any service or tangible benefit conferred on them by virtue of their holding any position in any organization on campus. This includes: office supplies, equipment, advertising space, administrative services, privileged email lists (i.e. listserves), staff time, and funding.
10. Candidates are allowed to utilize public listserves (where anyone can have access and/or place a request to include their materials). Texts of all campaigning material requires prior approval from CRO. If submitting a request to campaign via listserve, the CRO needs to be CC'd as proof that the managing department liaison was emailed as opposed to having an unfair advantage in accessing listserves.
11. The limit for election related expenses for each candidate is $25 (subject to final election budget) as determined by reasonable market value. Candidates must keep track of their expenses and save receipts, and submit these to the CRO by midday one business day after the close of the election. Expenses incurred by candidates for the purpose of campaigning will be reimbursed by the TGSA up to the $25 limit per candidate.
12. Live animals may not be used in campaigning. Dead animals may not be used in campaigning either.

SECTION B: CAMPAIGN RULES ON POSTERS

1. The TGSA will make paper and photocopy machines available at the TST Office to candidates for the purposes of photocopying posters and/or leaflets. Candidates must use the TST's photocopy machine for photocopying posters and request a receipt for the TGSA.
2. Distribution and display of campaign materials must be in accordance with the regulations of Facilities & Services (please refer to the Procedure on Distribution of Publications, Posters, and Banners available online at <http://www.fs.utoronto.ca/building-services-trades/posters-and-flyers/>) and the rules governing posting within each building.
3. All posters may only contain information that is relevant to the election.
4. Campaign materials may not overlap or be attached to any campaign materials (including one's own) already affixed to an object or surface. This rule is inclusive of other current campus elections taking place in TST member Colleges.
5. Campaign materials may not be affixed to surfaces in classrooms or seminar rooms.
6. Candidates may not remove from any location, whether materials are posted legally or illegally, the materials of other candidates or third parties without the express authorization of the CRO.

SECTION C: CAMPAIGN RULES ON ELECTRONIC FORA

1. Candidates may use electronic fora (e.g. Websites, email etc.) in their campaigns so long as the materials adhere to all the rules contained in this Code and have received explicit approval from the CRO.
2. Prior approval for major changes to electronic fora must also be sought from the CRO.
3. Electronic fora that are normally considered "free" (e.g. Facebook, email accounts, University of Toronto personal web space etc.) shall be allowed and considered as costing $0.
4. In addition to adhering to the rules contained in this Code, electronic campaign materials must be in accordance with the University's policies regarding information and communication technology, and must respect the privacy of students, faculty and staff.
5. With regard to electronic listservs, you may only post campaign materials to "open" lists, that is, lists that are either unmoderated and to which anyone can post, or else moderated but open to submissions from everyone regardless of affiliation. Please note: it is possible that a moderator of a particular list may choose to post the materials of one candidate but not another. So long as this is an editorial decision of the moderator (i.e. in general, membership or affiliation is not required in order to post), this shall be considered an "open list" and is therefore allowed.

6. Electronic listservs may include unofficial class lists but does not include the TST listserv managed by TST. The CRO will notify students on the TST mailing list of the election and will include the Statement of each Candidate in the notification.
7. Candidates must have the text of any electronic list postings, though not every list to which they will post it, approved in advance by the CRO.

SECTION D: VIOLATION OF RULES

1. At the conclusion of the Campaign period, and on the assumption that no complaints have been received, the CRO will determine that the Election may continue. In the event that complaints have been received, the CRO may elect to suspend the election until the complaint has been resolved.
2. Complaints, with photographic or documentary evidence, about campaigns should be addressed to the CRO, Matthew Charlesworth at matthew.charlesworth@mail.utoronto.ca and they should be received no later than 11:59 pm on Tuesday, April 5, 2016.
3. If a complaint appears to have prima facie merit and the CRO judges that the complaint is of a grave and serious nature that would later reasonably result in the election being called into question, the CRO may in his/her discretion elect to suspend the elections and appoint a three-member investigation panel from the TGSA Board who will be charged with investigating the complaint and if they uphold the complaint, recommending an appropriate penalty to the CRO, which may include disqualification.
4. If a complaint appears to the CRO to be prima facie of a less serious nature, that although an allegedly credible violation, would not warrant the credibility of the entire election being undermined, the CRO may notify the candidate(s) concerned that an investigation will take place after the election and that the results of the election would be withheld until the results of the investigation and a recommendation – which may include disqualification – is completed.
5. Upon receipt of the recommendation, the CRO will enforce the recommendation and inform the complainant and the candidate concerned.
6. The CRO will be responsible for rescheduling the elections.
7. The CRO must prepare a report on the election and present it at the Annual General Meeting, including a report on any complaints received, processes followed, and sanctions given. Any candidate sanctioned by the CRO may lodge an appeal at the Annual General Meeting.

24 March 2016

Dear All,

There has been a request to change the time of the meeting to 12-1pm as some have a class from 2-4pm...

I am ok with that time. My only constraint is that I have a class at 4pm and I wanted to introduce you to some people at TST and so avoid their lunch-break, but that is not a deal-breaker, and I'm pretty sure if we start at 12pm we can still catch the TST staff.

Please let me know if that's ok.
Matthew

1 April 2016

Dear Candidates,

The campaigning period ended last night and voting is now open. You may remind people that voting is open, but you may not 'campaign' i.e. attempt to persuade people to vote for you. I have asked that a notice go out to the whole TST listserv notifying people of the opening of the Vote and of your candidate statements. There should be no other mass-mailings allowed now that the campaign period is over. Thank you for observing the Campaign Rules (<https://tgsa.sa.utoronto.ca/files/2015/11/TGSA-Campaign-Rules.pdf>).

If someone comes to you saying they had a problem accessing voting.utoronto.ca please direct them to email me and I will try and resolve the matter.

6 April 2016

Dear Candidates,

Thank you for your participation in the elections. Voting closed a few minutes ago at 23:59. I would like to remind you to please submit any receipts for legitimate campaign expenditure so we can reimburse you. I will be at Regis College later today (Wednesday) with a cheque book so I can write you a cheque then, or at the AGM. If you could all email me to let me know that either you are claiming, or you are not claiming, so I can finalize the accounts for Thursday, I would be most grateful.

Please do come to the AGM (and bring your friends!) The results will be announced then.

Thank you for putting yourselves forward.

Candidate Campaign Statements

Warren Campbell

Thank you for considering me for the position of Vice President Academic. My vision for the role is simply to create an effective and open channel of communication between the TST Academic Council and the TGSA board. The opportunity to serve as a voice between these two governing bodies is something I would approach with much respect and candor. Furthermore, it has been my experience that a lack of political or social engagement is often a result of not knowing where to begin. Thus, my goal is to help create greater continuity between the student body and the TGSA board by opening easy and accessible avenues for students to voice their thoughts, opinions, ideas, etc. Since it has been my experience that the TST is one of the most unique and fruitful academic locations of study, I would welcome the opportunity to make a positive contribution to such an environment as the VP Academic.

Marie Green

I'm Marie Green and I'm excited to be your Vice-President Academic for TGSA. I want to be a part of a lively community of scholars – students and professors – who break bread together, inspire, support and pray for one another. Centered in Christ (1 Cor. 3:10-15), I envision a theological community that produces great research, informs public discourse and lays the foundation for great academic achievement. The fact that this position is being contested is testament to the significance of the role and I will do my best to reinforce that throughout my tenure. Rest assured, I am passionate about informing decisions that affect the student body. My soft skills and experience as a student in the conjoint PhD program with St. Mikes (MTS, Wycliffe 2011), will help me contribute to the goals of TGSA in a positive way. I am committed to hearing from you and working with my fellow reps, administration and other stakeholders. I look forward to receiving your vote and to representing you.

Fiona Li

I'm Fiona Li and I'm running to be your Vice-President Academic! My motto is "Be someone who makes others feel important," and I am passionate about hearing your experiences, problems, and suggestions. For example, I know many doctoral students have concerns with aspects of the cohort classes. If elected, I will gather your feedback and make this the first issue I raise at TST's Academic Council. This passion has led me into student politics: I'm on the University of St. Michael's College (USMC) Faculty of Theology's Student Life Committee (last year as Co-Chair, and this year as a member), the liturgical committee, the Faculty of Theology's Council, and USMC Senate. I also recently served on the organizing committee for the Celebrating Women in Theology Conference and have attended meetings of the TST Graduate Studies Council and the TGSA Board. With my experience, I am ready to serve the whole TST community! So starting Friday, April 1, please give me your vote!
