

Candidates for TGSA 2026-2028 President

David Ross - 3rd year PhD candidate in New Testament at Wycliffe College

My name is David Ross, and I am a charismatic/Pentecostal Christian with a proven track record on the TGSA board as Treasurer (since Jan. 2024) of working alongside other TST students from different traditions and with different opinions on important questions. As Canadian society and the wider world become increasingly polarized, my vision for the TGSA and TST in general is that we would be a rare place of unity and mutual respect in the midst of this chaos, despite our different traditions and opinions. I am just now beginning to write my PhD thesis on John Calvin. I chose to study Calvin not because I agreed with him on every point, in fact I chose Calvin because I have some significant points of disagreement with him and I wanted to be challenged to find the good in a thinker who seemed problematic to me. If elected, I would bring this same approach to the role of President: listening before I speak and looking for and promoting the good in those different from myself.

Luna Harlow - 4th year PhD in Theological Studies at Emmanuel College

Hellooo! My name is Luna Harlow (she/they). I live beside High Park, and my latest hobby is identifying birds by their calls—I would love to go for a walk together and show you my skills. I moved to Toronto in 2023 to pursue a PhD and study how earth-based spiritualities, like Paganism, support healing from spiritual trauma. Outside of my studies, I play the cello, bake, and spend time with my pet cockatiel, Coco. I'm running for President because I love planning events that bring diverse groups together. I believe in creating many opportunities for students to build community—online, on campus, and off campus. I'm highly administrative and able to dream big while executing plans with careful attention to detail.
